

The more
you know, the more
you care

FAQ - Local Habitat

Use

Which features does the Local Habitat offer me?

The Local Habitat is a glass research dome that can be used to observe creatures and insects living nearby. The glass design with three bubbles on the side allow the user to observe their catch. When it is not used as a research dome, it doubles as a vase. It is available in a small and large version.

What does the Local Habitat not withstand?

As the Local Habitat is a design made of glass, it is fragile. Be careful when handling it to prevent breakage.

Safety

What safety hazards does the Local Habitat pose?

The lens effect of the Local Habitat can cause a fire when the vase is placed in direct sunlight. As the Local Habitat is a design made of glass, it is fragile. When dropped it will break into several sharp pieces. Always make sure to keep an eye on children using the Local Habitat.

Maintenance

What do I need to pay attention to when maintaining the Local Habitat?

After using the Local Habitat as a research dome, it should always be cleaned with a mild soap solution. Make sure to gently clean the area around the bubbles, as these are more fragile.

Which cleaning products can I use on the Local Habitat?

A mild soap solution and clean water.

Weather conditions

Which weather conditions will the Local Habitat withstand?

The Local Habitat can be taken along on expeditions in any type of weather. After usage, take it inside and store it in a safe place.

Material

What materials does the Local Habitat consist of?

Mouth-blown soda-lime glass

How much does the Local Habitat weigh?

The Local Habitat small: 2,5 kg / 5,5 kg

The Local Habitat large: 5,4 kg / 11,9 kg

Is the Local Habitat easy to move?

The Local Habitat is meant to be taken along to find creatures near you. It is very easy to move.

Packaging

How will the Local Habitat be packaged?

The Local Habitat will be safely packaged in a cardboard box.

What packaging materials are used?

Cardboard and EPS.

What are the dimensions of the packaging?

35 x 26 x 35 cm.